What are we learning?

Math: In math, we continue to compare fractions using a number line. This week we worked with mixed numbers and improper fractions.

Literacy: We have completed our "Freaky Frog" informational books! The kids did a terrific job with this project. The books will go home next Friday.

Science: We have started a new unit about plants and soils.

Social Studies: Mr. Lee will be teaching the kids about economics for Q4 social studies. Be on the lookout for information about our Q4 homework project: Market Day!
